

Clan MacInnes Heads Way Out West!

Join Clan MacInnes for its first west coast visit and 46th Annual General Meeting at the 2016 Seattle Games July 30-31.

The Pacific Northwest Highland Games in Enumclaw, WA, east of Seattle, is a USA biggie. Set in the green foothills of beautiful Mt. Rainier, these games host three major competitions—the North American Scottish Athletics Championship, the U.S. West Coast Drum Corps Championship, and the Northwest Regional Harp Finals.

There's more! The 69th Seattle Games will also feature:

- huge range of entertainment, 6 headliners & Celtic Showcase of locals
- bagpipe bands & Highland dancing
- ancient athletics
- not one, but two pubs!
- traditional Scottish food
- premier steel combat troupe using real weapons
- Hall of Celtic Vendors & Marketplace
- Scottish Farm & Scottish Dog Kennel

Amidst all this Scottish revelry, Clan MacInnes will host a Clan tent both Saturday and Sunday, gather for a casual dinner Saturday evening, and it has booked a block of 10 rooms at a special rate at Best Western Plus Peppertree Inn.

Saturday evening after the games, the Clan will eat, drink and be merry at the Longhorn Restaurant in nearby Auburn. The dinner buffet will include ribs, chicken, German sausage, barbecue beans, potato salad, cole slaw and non-alcoholic beverages. Cost: $25 per adult, $12.50 per child 12 and under. Mail checks for the AGM dinner to Treasurer Karal Perry at: 14 Jakes Lane, Dexter, ME 04930. Your payment should arrive by July 1.

To reserve a hotel room under Clan MacInnes, contact the Best Western Plus Peppertree Inn in Auburn. Ask for the IACM rate, $159/night. Note: AAA and AARP rate slightly better. Call 1-800-780-7234 or 1-253-887-7600.

For a wealth of information on the Seattle Games, see www.sshga.org/home/

Our MacInnes man in charge is Alton MacInnis, Northwest Region Commissioner, who stands ready to answer questions. Contacts: alton@macinnes.org or cell 1-509-521-4799. Note: Seattle is PDST, 3 hours earlier than EDST.